

A note from the faculty, staff and administration of CCCS

In this issue:

- Catholic Schools Week
- Scholastic Book Fair
- Welcome!!!
- Upcoming events

Catholic Schools Week will begin January 28, 2018! A list of activities and events will be sent home prior to Christmas break. Watch your child's backpack for this important information.

Wishing you a blessed St. Nicholas Day! (Dec. 6)

St. Nicholas, holy patron of children, saintly and generous bishop,
 inspire us to give gifts
 of ourselves and our time.
 Give us your blessing
 so that we might fill with sincerity each greeting we speak and send.
 Smiling saint of sweets and toys,
 help us stay youthful and mirthful, playful and joyful so that we can celebrate every day as Christmas.
 Patron Saint of generosity, arouse us to an evergreen extravagance in loving and in giving gifts to those we love and to the poor.
 Patron of the un-thanked,
 who always slips away before you can be thanked, incite us to be like you.
 --Edward Hays

Scholastic Book Fair

During the week of December 4th-8th students will have the opportunity to peruse the selections available and purchase books/gifts for themselves and others. Parents, please stop by and check out the selection. We will also need volunteers to help with the Book Fair. If you can help, please contact Mrs. Super.

New CCCS Development Director

We are pleased to announce that the school has a new development director. Please welcome Mrs. Debra Kase. She comes to us with a wealth of experience and a bundle of enthusiasm.

Keep Christ in Christmas and carry Him in your heart all year!

Important Dates:

- ◆ December 8th—Feast of Immaculate Conception
- ◆ December 15th—Cocoa & Polar Express 6—8:30pm
- ◆ December 18th- Christmas Concert 7pm
- ◆ December 20th—School Advisory Board Meeting
- ◆ December 21st—Early dismissal
- ◆ December 22nd—January 1st—School Closed

Talent Show is coming February 15, 2018!
Time to brush up on your talent for our CCCS extravaganza!!!!

Many blessings to all through the Christmas season and coming year!